FORMATTING GUIDELINES:

Prohibition to refer to the aggressor state's scholarly papers

It is prohibited citing and including in the reference list russian-language contributions published in any country, incl. papers written in other languages but published in russia and belarus.

The volume of the article is 10–20 pages (Main part). Font – Times New Roman, size – 14, line spacing – 1.5, margins – all 2 cm, paragraph – 1.25 cm. Formatting paragraphs with spaces (spaces) or tabs is not allowed. In the text it is necessary to use quotation marks only of such sample: "". Transfers are prohibited in the text. Page numbering is not conducted.

The UDC index (universal decimal classifier) is placed in front of the title of the article, a separate line, in the upper left corner. The author determines the UDC index.

Information about the author (authors) is indicated in English and Ukrainian after the UDC index (command – text width alignment) with indication of surname and name, academic degree and academic title, position, place of work and its full address, e-mail of each co-author; line below – ORCID number (<http://orcid.org/>), Scopus-Author ID (indicated in the presence of indexed publications in Scopus). All information is given in the nominative case. The name of the author (authors) is highlighted in bold and italics, other information – only in italics. Available in Ukrainian and English. The ORCID number and Scopus-Author ID are determined by the author.

Bibliographic description of the article (submitted by the editors).

The title of the article in Ukrainian and English (all uppercase letters).

The abstract is submitted in Ukrainian and English (at least 1,800 characters with spaces in each annotation). If the article is submitted in Polish, the abstract is submitted in three languages. The abstract is submitted in accordance with the requirements of scientometric databases as a structured abstract, and should contain the following selected elements: purpose of work, methodology, scientific novelty, conclusions.

Key words – words from the text of the material, which from the point of view of information retrieval carry a meaningful load. Key words are presented in the nominative case, the total number of keywords - not less than three and not more than seven, are presented in Ukrainian and English.

The main part of the article should contain the following structural elements:

- urgency of the problem;
- analysis of recent research and publications (only a list of surnames is not allowed);
- purpose and main objectives of the study;
- presentation of the main research material;
- conclusions and prospects for further exploration of this issue;
- bibliography / References.

References in the text are put in round brackets: an author's surname – comma – publication year – comma – pages which contain information the author refer to (Бібіков, 2010, с. 25). References to several pages are presented simultaneously by a semicolon (Бібіков, 2010; Коваленко, 2007; Шевченко, 2015), the indication of pages is optional.

Bibliography must involve at least 10 items in source languages (exception – Chinese, Japanese, Korean and Arabic). In that case, a source should be translated into English with the indication of a source language in square brackets. Bibliographic entry is executed taking into account developed in 2015 the National Standard of Ukraine DSTU 8302: 2015 “Information and documentation. Bibliographic reference. General principles and rules of composition”. To ensure the quality of scientific citations, the DOI of each source (if available) must be provided in the list of references.

At the end of the article is a transliterated and translated into English version of the literature (References), designed in accordance with the agreements of the APA \(American Psychological Association\).
